BENEFIT INFORMATION

What is this benefit?

Cellular Telephone Protection will reimburse you, the enrolled cardholder, for damage to or theft of an eligible Cellular Wireless Telephone.

Who is eligible for this benefit?

You must be a valid cardholder of an eligible U.S. issued card enrolled in the Cellular Telephone Protection benefit and charge your monthly Cellular Wireless Telephone bills to your eligible card. Only Cellular Wireless Telephones purchased by the cardholder will be covered.

What is covered?

This benefit is supplemental coverage, which means that it will reimburse you for cell phone theft or damage not otherwise covered by another insurance policy (for example; cell phone insurance programs, or your homeowner's, renter's, automobile, or employer's insurance policies). Once all other insurance has been applied, Cellular Telephone Protection will cover the damage or theft up to two hundred dollars ($200.00) per claim, subject to the terms, conditions, exclusions, and limits of liability of this benefit as well as the twenty-five dollar ($25.00) deductible.

Your maximum reimbursement amount is two hundred dollars ($200.00) per claim, and four hundred dollars ($400.00) per twelve (12) month period. You will receive no more than the original purchase price of the phone less your twenty-five dollar ($25.00) deductible.

You are covered for a maximum of two (2) claims per twelve (12) month period for a maximum of four hundred dollars ($400.00) per twelve (12) month period.

Coverage applies to both your primary cell phone line and up to the first two (2) secondary additional or supplemental lines (as listed on your cellular provider's monthly billing statement for the billing cycle before the month in which the theft or damage occurred).

When does coverage begin?

Cellular Telephone Protection begins the first day of the calendar month after a monthly payment of the cell phone bill is made with your eligible card.

What is not covered?

The following is not covered by Cellular Phone Protection:

- Cell phones purchased by someone other than you, the cardholder
- Cell phone accessories other than standard battery and/or standard antenna provided by the manufacturer
- Cell phones purchased for resale, professional, or commercial use
- Cell phones that are lost or "mysteriously disappear," meaning that the phone vanished in an unexplained manner without evidence of a wrongful act by a person or persons
- Cell phones under the care and control of a common carrier (including, but not limited to, the U.S. Postal Service, airplanes, or delivery service)
- Cell phones stolen from baggage unless hand-carried and under your personal supervision, or under the supervision of your traveling companion
- Cell phones stolen from a construction site
- Cell phones which have been rented, borrowed or are part of a pre-paid or "pay as you go" type plan
- Cosmetic damage to the cell phone or damage that does not impact its ability to make or receive calls
- Damage or theft resulting from abuse, intentional acts, fraud, hostilities of any kind (including, but not limited to war, invasion, rebellion, or insurrection), confiscation by the authorities, risks of contraband, illegal activities, normal wear and tear, flood, earthquake, radioactive contamination, or damage from inherent product defects or vermin
- Damage or theft resulting from misdelivery or voluntary parting with the cell phone
- Replacement cell phones not purchased from a cellular service provider's retail or online store or other authorized cell phone retailer
- Taxes, delivery and transportation charges, and any fees associated with the cellular service provider

Please Note: If you fail to make a cell phone bill payment in a particular month, your coverage will be suspended. Coverage will resume on the first day of the month after the date of any future cell phone bill payment with your eligible card.

Should I keep copies of receipts or any other records?

Yes. If you want to file a claim, you will need copies of your card statement reflecting your monthly cell phone bill payments during the time of the damage or theft, as well as your store receipt for purchase of your new cell phone.
